

You must continue to allow satellite radio to broadcast news and weather programs. This is a First Amendment right and should not be abrogated in the face of corporate pressure. Be fair!